

I respectfully ask you to reject the NAB's petition 04-160. The NAB should have the right to bully satellite radio, or any other legitimate competition, just because they feel threatened by other's sucess. Satellite radio is a choice for myself and millions of others. NAB should focus on improving their own instead of using powerful lobbyist to bully the FCC.